

Don't Speak Double Dutch

Something's going on...

He works hard.

He is working hard.

She lives in Delft.

She is living in Delft.

You are stupid.

You are being stupid.

He is always asking for help.

She is always finding an excuse for being late.

He was always asking silly questions.

He goes to school by bicycle.

Every time he goes shopping he spends a lot of money

Water freezes at 0°C.

He plays the piano better than I do.

'...Harry steps up to Cedric and looks him straight in the eye...'

'...The goalkeeper dives, saves the ball and kicks it to ...'

'...The Queen steps forward and the doors are closed in front of her...'

1. Robert works/is now working as a journalist but I think he'll return to teaching soon.
2. He watches/is watching TV, so don't disturb him.
3. The river flows/is flowing to the sea.
4. I'm happy that she always makes/is making my sandwiches in the morning.
5. My colleagues always sing/are always singing early in the morning ...